Collateral Damage

Ellen Rebman

A wounded Iraqi girl. March 29, 2003.

Front line crossfire ripped apart an Iraqi family on Saturday. The four year old girl, blood streaming from an eye wound, was screaming for her dead mother, while her father, shot in a leg, begged to be freed from the plastic wristcuffs slapped on him by U.S. marines, so he could hug his other terrified daughter.

Look at Her Eyes.
